Brand Identity Guidelines for
DIET & CHEAT

BRAND GUIDELINES

The Full Brand Guidelines

Diet & Cheat is built around a simple belief: healthy living should fit into real life. We believe that nutrition and fitness should not be about restriction, guilt, or unrealistic perfection. They should be sustainable, flexible, and designed around the person.

Our identity reflects this philosophy by combining strength with care, discipline with flexibility, and fitness with everyday life.

These guidelines establish the visual language of Diet & Cheat and ensure that the brand remains consistent, recognizable, and human across every touchpoint.

Typography

The headline typography carries the energetic character of the brand, while the body typography creates clarity and accessibility across longer content.

We use Inter as the primary typeface for headlines and body copy, creating visual harmony across all our reports and drawings.
